To whom it may concern:

Dr. Lyle Lieder and I have visited at length with Mr. Ron Golding who had applied for Registration as a Troop Committeeman with Troop 30 of Clear Lake, Iowa.

We are both convinced the incident that caused the refusal of his registration is an isolated incident of many years ago. While the Goldings have been in Clear Lake a relatively short time, the recommendations from his Church in Cedar Falls were very glowing and indicated a high level of activity and responsibility.

We feel confident Ron will make an excellent Committeeman, and recommend his being registered as Troop Committeeman for Troop 30 of the United Methodist Church of Clear Lake, Iowa.

Sincerely yours,

Walter J. Leslie, Scout Master Troop 30

Man Faces Morals Count

MICHIGAN CITY — A North Judson man will appear in city court here tomorrow to face charges stemming from alleged advances yesterday to a 15-year-old boy.

Ronald F. Golding, 35, is charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He was apprehended last night at the Michigan City city limits after leading police on a high-speed chase.

According to police, the boy said he was hitchhiking along Franklin street yesterday afternoon when Golding picked him up.

The 15-year-old added that Golding stopped at a tavern to purchase beer, then drove to an area near the prison farm where the older man allegedly made advances.

Police were at a stake-out last night at Stop 33, Lake Shore drive, where they said Golding made arrangements to meet the boy again.

According to officers, Golding apparently realized police were present after the boy got into his car and sped off.

Detectives pursued the car into New Buffalo, Mich., where it was turned around and came back to Michigan City, being stopped at the city limits at a road block.

Police pointed out that there is a possibility of federal action due to transportation over the state line.
